Spirited Awakening

A schooner is reborn as a floating bar & trendy bistro.

When you cross the Kennebunk River bridge, look beyond the Clam Shack and down to the waterfront. You’ll spy The Spirit of Massachusetts made fast to her dock, her tall masts lit to surprise the night sky.

We’re dining onboard the schooner tonight, so step lively.

Dwight Raymond’s dream to launch this vessel as The Spirit restaurant has been fully realized. Treasured as the last vessel ever built at Charlestown Naval Shipyard (in 1984), she’s plied the seas from the Caribbean to Africa and Canada, a reported half-family-operated at their convenient South Portland location. Open 7 days a week for lunch and dinner. Tableside guacamole, sizzling fajitas, delicious margaritas, and live Latin music are to be enjoyed. See Facebook for daily specials. 147 Western Ave., South Portland, 773-8851 million miles before she came to be cradled in her new berth.

Piped aboard, we were seated beside the ship’s wheel, where we could see all the attractions reflected in the river: Arundel Wharf Restaurant, Davids K’port, Federal Jacks. There used to be a celebrated restaurant called Windows on the Water on this river. This is water on the windows.

Time for champagne! (Though our animated and helpful server has never been briefed that Veuve Clicquot is in honor of the Widow Clicquot, 1777-1866, the visionary who launched a champagne empire that’s well into its second century. Everyone who launched a champagne empire was called an “Admiral.”)

Our reply: “We didn’t know that was mutual exclusive!”

This is one yare party. (Yar being the second spelling, Admiral.)

The Spirit, 4 Western Ave. Kennebunk, ME. Daily, 11am-10pm. No reservations, but your table is now ready in the newly opened dining room (below).
The Spirit of Massachusetts is a 125-foot schooner built right here in New England at the Charlestown Naval Shipyard. Her launch in 1984 was celebrated in Boston Harbor with a tall ship festival that welcomed over 80 tall ships from all over the world. After her launch she served as a goodwill ambassador for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts while sailing the globe as an educational vessel. In 2014 The Spirit of Massachusetts was restored and brought to her new home in Kennebunk, ME.
