Portland Magazine Wins 8 National Prizes at the 2007 American Graphic Design Awards

NEW YORK—Portland Magazine captures eight prizes at the prestigious national American Graphic Design Awards for design excellence conducted in New York by Graphic Design USA magazine and sponsored by Adobe Systems Incorporated.

The American Graphic Design Awards is a nationwide juried competition from one of the most respected design industry resources. The Awards have been presented for over three decades, and the judges are composed of industry leaders in all aspects of graphic design.

Graphic Design USA’s prize announcement of the awards, including a listing of the stories, covers, and issues that received the honors:

Congratulations!

You have been selected as a winner in the 2007 American Graphic Design Awards.

Selected from a remarkable 10,000+ entries nationwide, these pieces—and their creators—represent the best and brightest in graphic design.

Amazing performance...

Portland Magazine, February/March 2007–Publication Design
Portland Magazine, December 2006–Cover Design
Portland Magazine, Winterguide 2007–Cover Design
Portland Magazine, “Tasty Maine” [December 2006]–Editorial Design

Gordon Kaye–Editor, Graphic Design USA
Rachel Goldberg–Awards Director

“This is a great honor for us, but especially great news for our readers, advertisers, and all our supporters,” says Portland Magazine Design Director Robert Witkowski.

Celebrating 22 years in publication, Portland Magazine has also won five national graphic-design awards in the last three years for front-cover art direction at the annual Maggie Zine Awards sponsored by NewsStand Resource Magazine of Greensboro, North Carolina, including First Prize and Best of Show.

The full list of award winners, including color coverage of Portland Magazine for Publication Design, selected from among over 10,000 entrants nationwide, will be published in the December 2007 GDUSA Design Annual.
MISSION STATEMENT

To excite our readers about the state of Maine so that they are open to new discoveries to make their quality of life even better.

To exceed all expectations by capturing the spirit of Maine.

We are Maine’s City Magazine.

DESCRIPTION

Established in 1985, Portland Magazine celebrates the region’s native appeal with award-winning columns on the waterfront; profiles of the region’s business and people; and features on the area’s arts, getaways, maritime history, geography, and cuisine.

In addition, each issue captures our audience with new fiction, great listings, and exclusive angles on issues that affect everyday life. From realistic assessments of the local economy and its political vagaries, to stories on personalities who have chosen our area over all others, to Maine’s own variations of the work ethic, to light-hearted glimpses of Yankee contradictions, we consistently present fresh narratives about the greatest place in the world to visit, to do business in, and to live.

More than just a city-lifestyle magazine, Portland Magazine offers an extraordinary perspective of Maine that has made it the favorite in area hotels, airlines, and waiting rooms, as well as a leader in subscription and single-copy sales.

Celebrating 22 years!

April–July 1986: Waterfront series by John Taylor wins First Prize for Magazine Feature Writing in an award ceremony conducted by the American Society of Business Communications.

June 1986: Magazine is profiled on television news by WGME-TV as one of three successful new small businesses in Maine. Feature articles on magazine printed in the Hartford Courant and the Maine Sunday Telegram.

August 1987: Cover story breaks the news that van Gogh’s Les Iris painting is about to be sold, forcing Sotheby’s to confirm this story to other media at a press conference in September.

September 1989: Jamie Wyeth interview appears with photos by Life magazine photographer Susan Gray. Interview draws praise from Andrew Wyeth.

April 1990: Fiction by Pulitzer Prize winner Louis Simpson.

July 1990: Hannaford Brothers starts a program to provide new company executives with copies of the magazine.

April 1991: The New York Public Library, praising the magazine for “original regional coverage and literary merit,” purchases the entire back list for its permanent collection.

July 1992: Two major Canadian bookstore chains begin distributing Portland Magazine.

October 1992: Readers Digest, Inc., contracts with Portland Magazine to sell subscriptions nationwide through its QSP program.

July/August 1993: Fiction by Sebastian Junger, author of The Perfect Storm.

October 1996: Portland Magazine is featured nationwide on ABC’s Rosie O’Donnell show.

December 2002: Picked up by Amazon.com.

Summerrguide 2003: Record ad sales result in 224 pages of color, energy, and insight.

December 2003: All-time annual subscription record smashed by 44 percent as Portland Magazine soars into its 19th year.

September 2004: Magazine growing at 47 percent, sets records new England-wide.

June 2005: Portland Magazine is the winner of both Best Cover and Best of the Show awards at the Maggie Zine Cover Award Competition, conducted in Greensboro, North Carolina, by NewsStand Resource. The cover took first place nationally in the City, Regional, and Special magazine category for achievement in art direction and newsstand appeal, and then as a capping honor was chosen to be the Grand Prize Winner as Best of the Show.

“If we had 500 entrants in the cover competition, including National Geographic, U.S. News & World Report, Scientific American, Nickelodeon Magazine, Pittsburgh Magazine, and out of all of them Portland Magazine had the best cover,” says Frances Becker Cliff, publisher of NewsStand Resource, the nation’s leading trade magazine for single-copy newsstand sales. “We love it. It’s just Maine, you know? It says Maine.”

August 2005: Mediabistro.com, the international consortium for media followers, praises Portland Magazine for “high caliber” content...“in the vein of Pulitzer Prize winner Louis Simpson, Frederick Barthelme, and Barbara Lefcowitz...in addition to the standard city-mag fare...indeed the magazine reaches beyond the usual...”

—mediabistro.com

June 2006: Portland Magazine wins second national award for cover art direction presented at the Maggie Zine Cover Award Competition from NewsStand Resource in the City, Regional, and Special magazine category.

August 2006: Portland Magazine is profiled as one of the top-tier commercial magazines in the country for savvy mediaphiles to follow and submit their work to mediabistro.com, international media consortium.

March 2007: Portland Magazine wins an unprecedented third national award for cover art direction presented at the Maggie Zine Cover Award Competition from NewsStand Resource in the City, Regional, and Special magazine category.

Portland Magazine chosen to be complimentary passenger selections on JetBlue Airlines, Amtrak Downeaster, and premier business-travel clubs in all major airports in the Northeast.

September 2007: Portland Magazine captures eight prizes at a nationwide juried competition from one of the most respected design industry resources, the prestigious national American Graphic Design Awards for design excellence conducted in New York by Graphic Design USA magazine and sponsored by Adobe Systems Incorporated. Winning Designs included:

February/March 2007–Publication Design
December 2006–Cover Design
Winterguide 2007–Cover Design
“Vanishing Point” [Winterguide 2007]–Editorial Design
“Tall Order” [Winterguide 2007]–Editorial Design
“Tasty Maine” [December 2006]–Editorial Design

“Amazing performance...Graphic Design USA has been presenting this popular competition, open to all segments of the creative community, for more than three decades. Selected from a remarkable 10,000+ entries nationwide, these pieces—and their creators—represent the best and brightest in graphic design,” remarks Graphic Design USA editor Gordon Kaye.

November 2007: Portland Stage praises “the diversity of the articles and features in Portland Magazine—‘truly a champion of the arts.’”
Surveys and cross-sections of our readers include heart surgeons, airline pilots, university presidents, and Maine's politicians, including longtime reader former President George Bush, who has written us in praise of our stories, and David Koplow, “The Portland Dogman.”

Sen. Olympia Snowe has ordered back issues of Portland Magazine. Gen. Norman Schwartzkopf and Liv Tyler. Stephen King, who called our office because he was interested in buying one of the luxury homes we've profiled.

CONTROLLED CIRCULATION
Waiting-room copies of Portland Magazine are distributed to all doctors’, lawyers’, and dentists’ offices from Kittery to Camden, including saturation coverage in all the Portland, South Portland, Cape Elizabeth, Cumberland, and Freeport financial sectors as well as Augusta, Hallowell, Lewiston, and Auburn. This unique program introduces families of consumers to our advertisers. Imagine the pre-existing depth of influence and affluence and generational coverage when, so often, you hear about Portland Magazine: “Oh—it saw it in my doctor’s office!”

Retailers Love: Our deep statewide presence in all of the Maine Bureau of Tourism Visitor centers. Since instituting this major partnership, thousands upon thousands of new shoppers hitting the outlets have Portland Magazine in hand from their stops near the Kittery and Freeport outlets. This provides singular, unmatched coverage. We stock the Portland Visitor Center on Commercial Street as well.

We Mail To: The entire influence database of the Chamber of Commerce of the Greater Portland Region. This is not simply one copy per business but a highly cultivated list that flexes upward according to the size of the business.

Businesses Such As Hannaford subscribe in bulk to Portland Magazine because they give our magazine to newly hired executives so they can ‘hit the ground running’!

We Are The Guest Room Magazine for the Maine Coast’s Major Luxury Hotels:
It’s as if Portland Magazine has an exclusive list of all the new shoppers just hitting the area. Imagine the combined impact of visitors enjoying and traveling with the guest-room copies we provide to a host of prestigious hotels, including:
